

SSCIS 2022

2022 Int'l Conference on Solid State Chemistry and Inorganic Synthesis (SSCIS 2022) will be held during July 15-17, 2022 in Chengdu, China. The conference will cover issues on Solid state chemistry, Bonding in solids, Crystal chemistry, Synthesis of new compounds, Materials chemistry, Solid-state inorganic materials, Solid state reactions, Atomic and electronic structure of solids, etc. It dedicates to creating a stage for exchanging the latest research results and sharing the advanced research methods in related fields.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Solid state chemistry
Bonding in solids
Crystal chemistry
Synthesis of new compounds Materials chemistry
Solid-state inorganic materials Solid state reactions solid state materials electronic structure
optical properties Electrochemistry
Physical chemistry of solids Advanced glasses ceramics polymeric materials
nano materials Microporous
mesoporous materials
hydride materials 2d materials
surfaces, interfaces
nanostructured solids
Functional materials

Venue

Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan Province, lies in the hinterland of the Chengdu Plain, in central Sichuan. Covering a total land area of 12, 400 square kilometers, Chengdu has a jurisdiction of over 7 districts, 4 cities and 8 counties. By the end of 1999, the population of Chengdu had reached 10.036 million, of which 3.30 million were urban residents. Chengdu enjoys a long history. 2, 500 years ago, Kaiming IX, king of ancient Shu in the Zhou Dynasty (11th century 256BC), started to set up the capital in Chengdu. Chengdu gradually became one of the most important centers of politics, economy and culture in China. As one of China's famous historical and cultural cities, Chengdu enjoys rich tourist resources. 1, 500 years ago, a well-known poet in the Jin Kingdom, Zuo Si extolled Chengdu as lofty and pretty. This city has also gained the eulogium by both Li Bai, the poet immortal and Du Fu, the poet sage. With rich cultural heritage and beautiful scenic spots. , Chengdu is a peaceful and prosperous city.
